

I keep getting calls from various *800 #'s a specific person for collections. I am not that person nor do I know this person. If I don't answer they leave voice mail messages which means either way I have to use my minutes to answer the call or wade through multiple voice mails from these collections calls. I have tried calling the agencies but I wind up getting voice mail. Please put a stop to these calls.